U S S FORRESTAL CVA 59

Capt. J. H. Scott
Commanding

During the end of the second world war it was realized that to prepare for the future a larger or "super" carrier was needed. But, it was not until July of 1950 when the keel was laid that Forrestal became a reality.

Commissioned in October 1955, she had just finished sea trials when called to bolster U.S. forces in the Med. during the 1956 Suez crisis. Again in 1958 Forrestal came to standby during the Lebanon crisis.

In 1967 after seven Med. deployments Forrestal made her first Western Pacific cruise to Viet Nam. On the fifth day of combat operations a major fire broke out on the flight deck killing 134 of her crew and causing the ship to return to the yards.

Since the 1967 fire Forrestal has operated in the U.S. and Med. completing her tenth Sixth Fleet deployment in the summer of 1973.

Her eleventh cruise to the Mediterranean began on eleven March 1974 and ended in September of the same year. This is the story of that deployment.

INTERESTING FACTS

The FORRESTAL is 1,039 feet long and would reach to the 80th floor of the Empire State Building if stood on end.

The Flight Deck is 252 feet wide at its extreme breadth. The entire deck covers a total area of approximately four acres. It is wide enough to sit both the SS UNITED STATES and the SS AMERICA side-by-side on her deck; or as wide as a World War I destroyer was long.

From keel to mast, the FORRESTAL is as tall as a 25 story building.

The engines that drive FORRESTAL deliver more than 260,000 horsepower, or enough horsepower to keep about 1,430 1968 six-cylinder Mustangs on the road.

The Hangar Deck area for handling, parking, and repairing aircraft is the main deck. It is 75,000 square feet in area, or two acres, and can house more than 80 planes.

Storerooms on the ship are equal to a six-story warehouse one block square and have a total capacity of 371,204 cubic feet.

It takes 300,000 gallons of paint to paint FORRESTAL. This is enough paint to paint 30,000 average homes.

The ship cruises at a speed of more than 30 knots, or 36 miles per hour if you are driving a car.

Norfolk

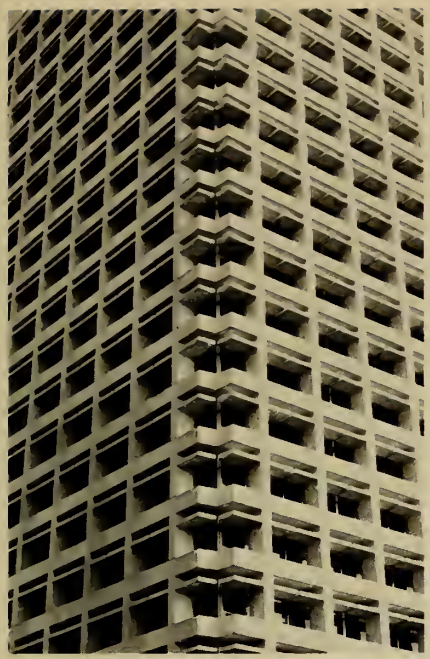

Homeport for many of the ship's crew and squadron personnel, and one more liberty port for the rest. But whichever, it is the last and the first U.S. soil for six months.

As it must be written in Navy Regs, the rain fell as Forrestal got underway. Her steel and brass soul feeling none of the emotions present from the crew, sad from those leaving loved ones, and cheerful from those embarking on new adventures.

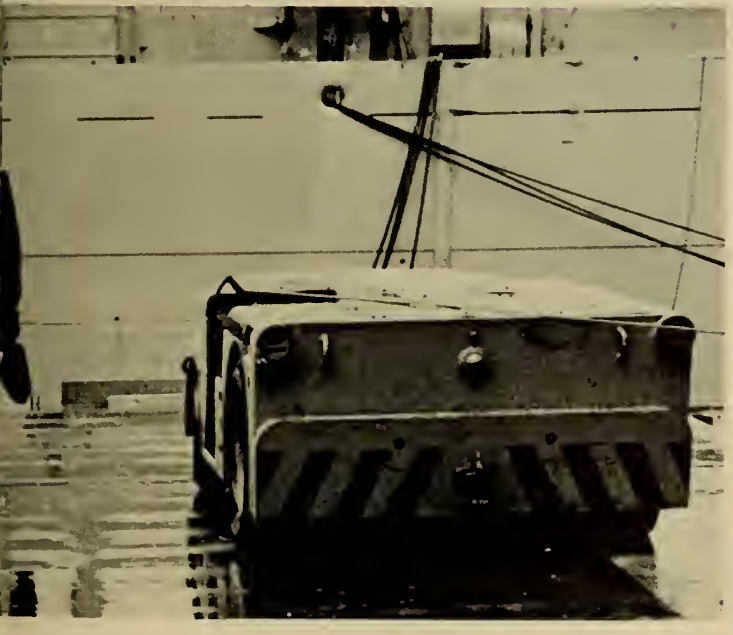

As we moved down around a storm, we had time, to get into a shipboard routine,

to get ready for the work ahead,

to reflect on what we had just left,

and time to think about what lay ahead.

For many, the first visit to a port outside the United States. For others, just the beginning of the Med. For all a chance to get off the ship, stretch their legs, do a little shopping, and see some old, or new sights.

Some Participated

During long sea periods, brief respite is often found in the form of boxing or wrestling smokers. It gives both the participants and spectators a chance to work off some of the tension caused by routine shipboard activity.

Competition is keen between divisions, squadrons, and individuals. The matches begin with a flurry of energy and the audience soon joins in with it's vocal encouragement. Then as fast as it started it is over with one man a winner and the other sure he could have won if only he could have stayed on his feet for ten more seconds.

But regardless of which side of the mat a man is on, a good time is had by all.

June Sixth

30 Years Ago

NORMANDY, FRANCE, JUNE 6, 1944 SAW THE BEGINNING OF THE END FOR GERMANY AS THE ALLIED FORCES SPEARHEADED AN ATTACK TO WREST THE RESORT AREA FROM THE 3RD RIECH. AND ON JUNE 6, 1974, A 35 MAN CONTINGENT FROM FORRESTAL MARCHED THE SAME ROUTE THAT THE CANADIAN FORCES TOOK AT VER-SUR-MER. AT UTAH BEACH, 40 MILES AWAY, THE GLEEFUL SHRIEKS OF CHILDREN PLAYING ON THE BEACH REPLACED THE SCREAM OF SHELLS AS U.S. BATTLESHIPS POUNDED THE AREA. FORRESTAL'S MARCHING UNIT WAS A PART OF THE EIGHT NATION MILITARY FORCE WHICH HAD ASSEMBLED TO COMMEMORATE & PAY HOMAGE TO ALL THOSE WHO DIED THERE FIGHTING FOR FREEDOM. PRESENT AT THE CEREMONY WERE SUCH MEN AS FRENCH PREMIER PIERRE MESSMER, GENERAL OMAR BRADLEY, WHO SPEARHEADED THE D DAY INVASION AND ALAN SHEPARD.

One of the most respected visitors to Forrestal during this cruise was the President of Spain, Sr. Arias Nevarro, Sr. Nevarro came aboard June 19th to full honors and a VIP tour conducted by the skipper. During his stay, the President of Spain toured Forrestal's key operating and living spaces and observed flight operations, which were conducted during joint exercises involving Spanish and American Naval Forces. As a memento of his visit, the President of Spain was given a handsome, handmade walnut cigar box, preferred by the ships carpenter shop.

Dear Ann,

One of the best deals going on this deployment is an outfit known as Europatour 74. They make the cruise much more fun as well as informative by organizing tours of the points of interest in the vicinity of the port we are visiting.

For example, when the ship was in Rota, they ran tours to Cadiz and Sevilla, home of the artist Joán Miro. In Cannes, they took us to Paris, Monte Carlo, the French Alps to Valberg for skiing, and to a perfume factory in Grasse. Palma, where you met us, was the starting point for tours to the Caves of Drach, Formentor and Valdemossa, as well as the Spanish BarBQ, and the Medieval Banquet. Europatour gave three guided treks of Athens and a journey to the Fiesta Corinth Mycennie.

The Captain got together with Mike Whitsit and the Europatour staff, and came up with the "Skippers Special," a free trip to London or Rome for thirty of the more deserving men. Needless to say, this is one thing that everone liked.

Well, I suppose that duty, and the Cruisebook, calls. I love you and will see you soon.

They didn't tell me the draft was over before I raised my hand.

At least it's a seat on the early bird!

Woops, I forgot I had on my 18 hour OBA.

If I send it SAM, how much to the states?

Let's see now, oh yah, I remember now. An F-4 parked by the edge just before we made that last turn.

No, I can't think what might have happened to it!

He got me off the line, but I'll get him in second.

Sit in line two hours, and only get ten gallons.

Quick, more peanuts, Dumbo is still hungry!

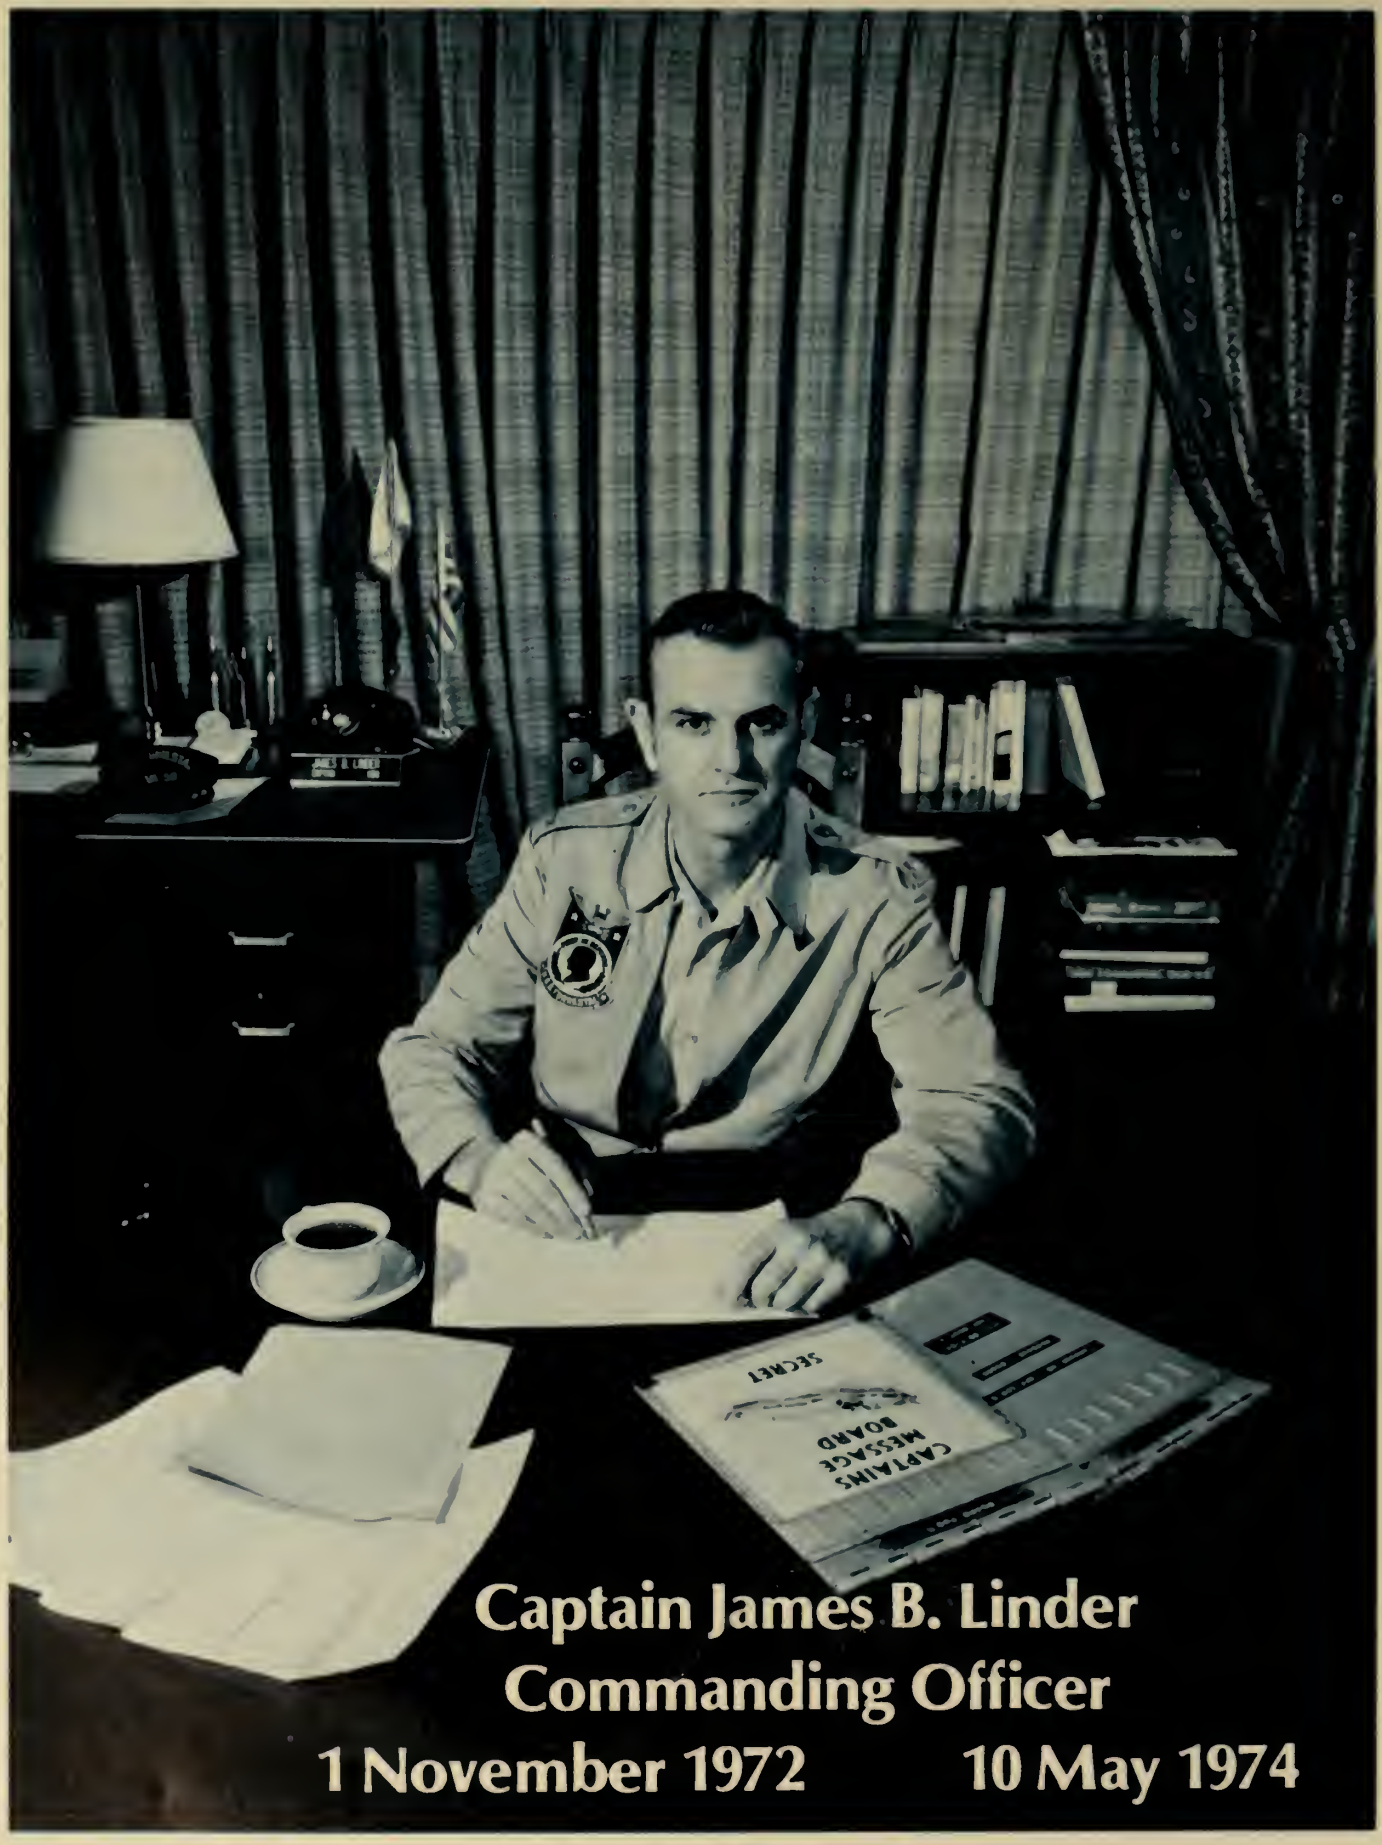

The recruiter told me I could break the chains of civilian life, but this beats all.

We're in luck! It's only flat on the bottom.

This beauty was used by a little lady pilot that only flew on nice days.

CAPT. J. C. SCOTT

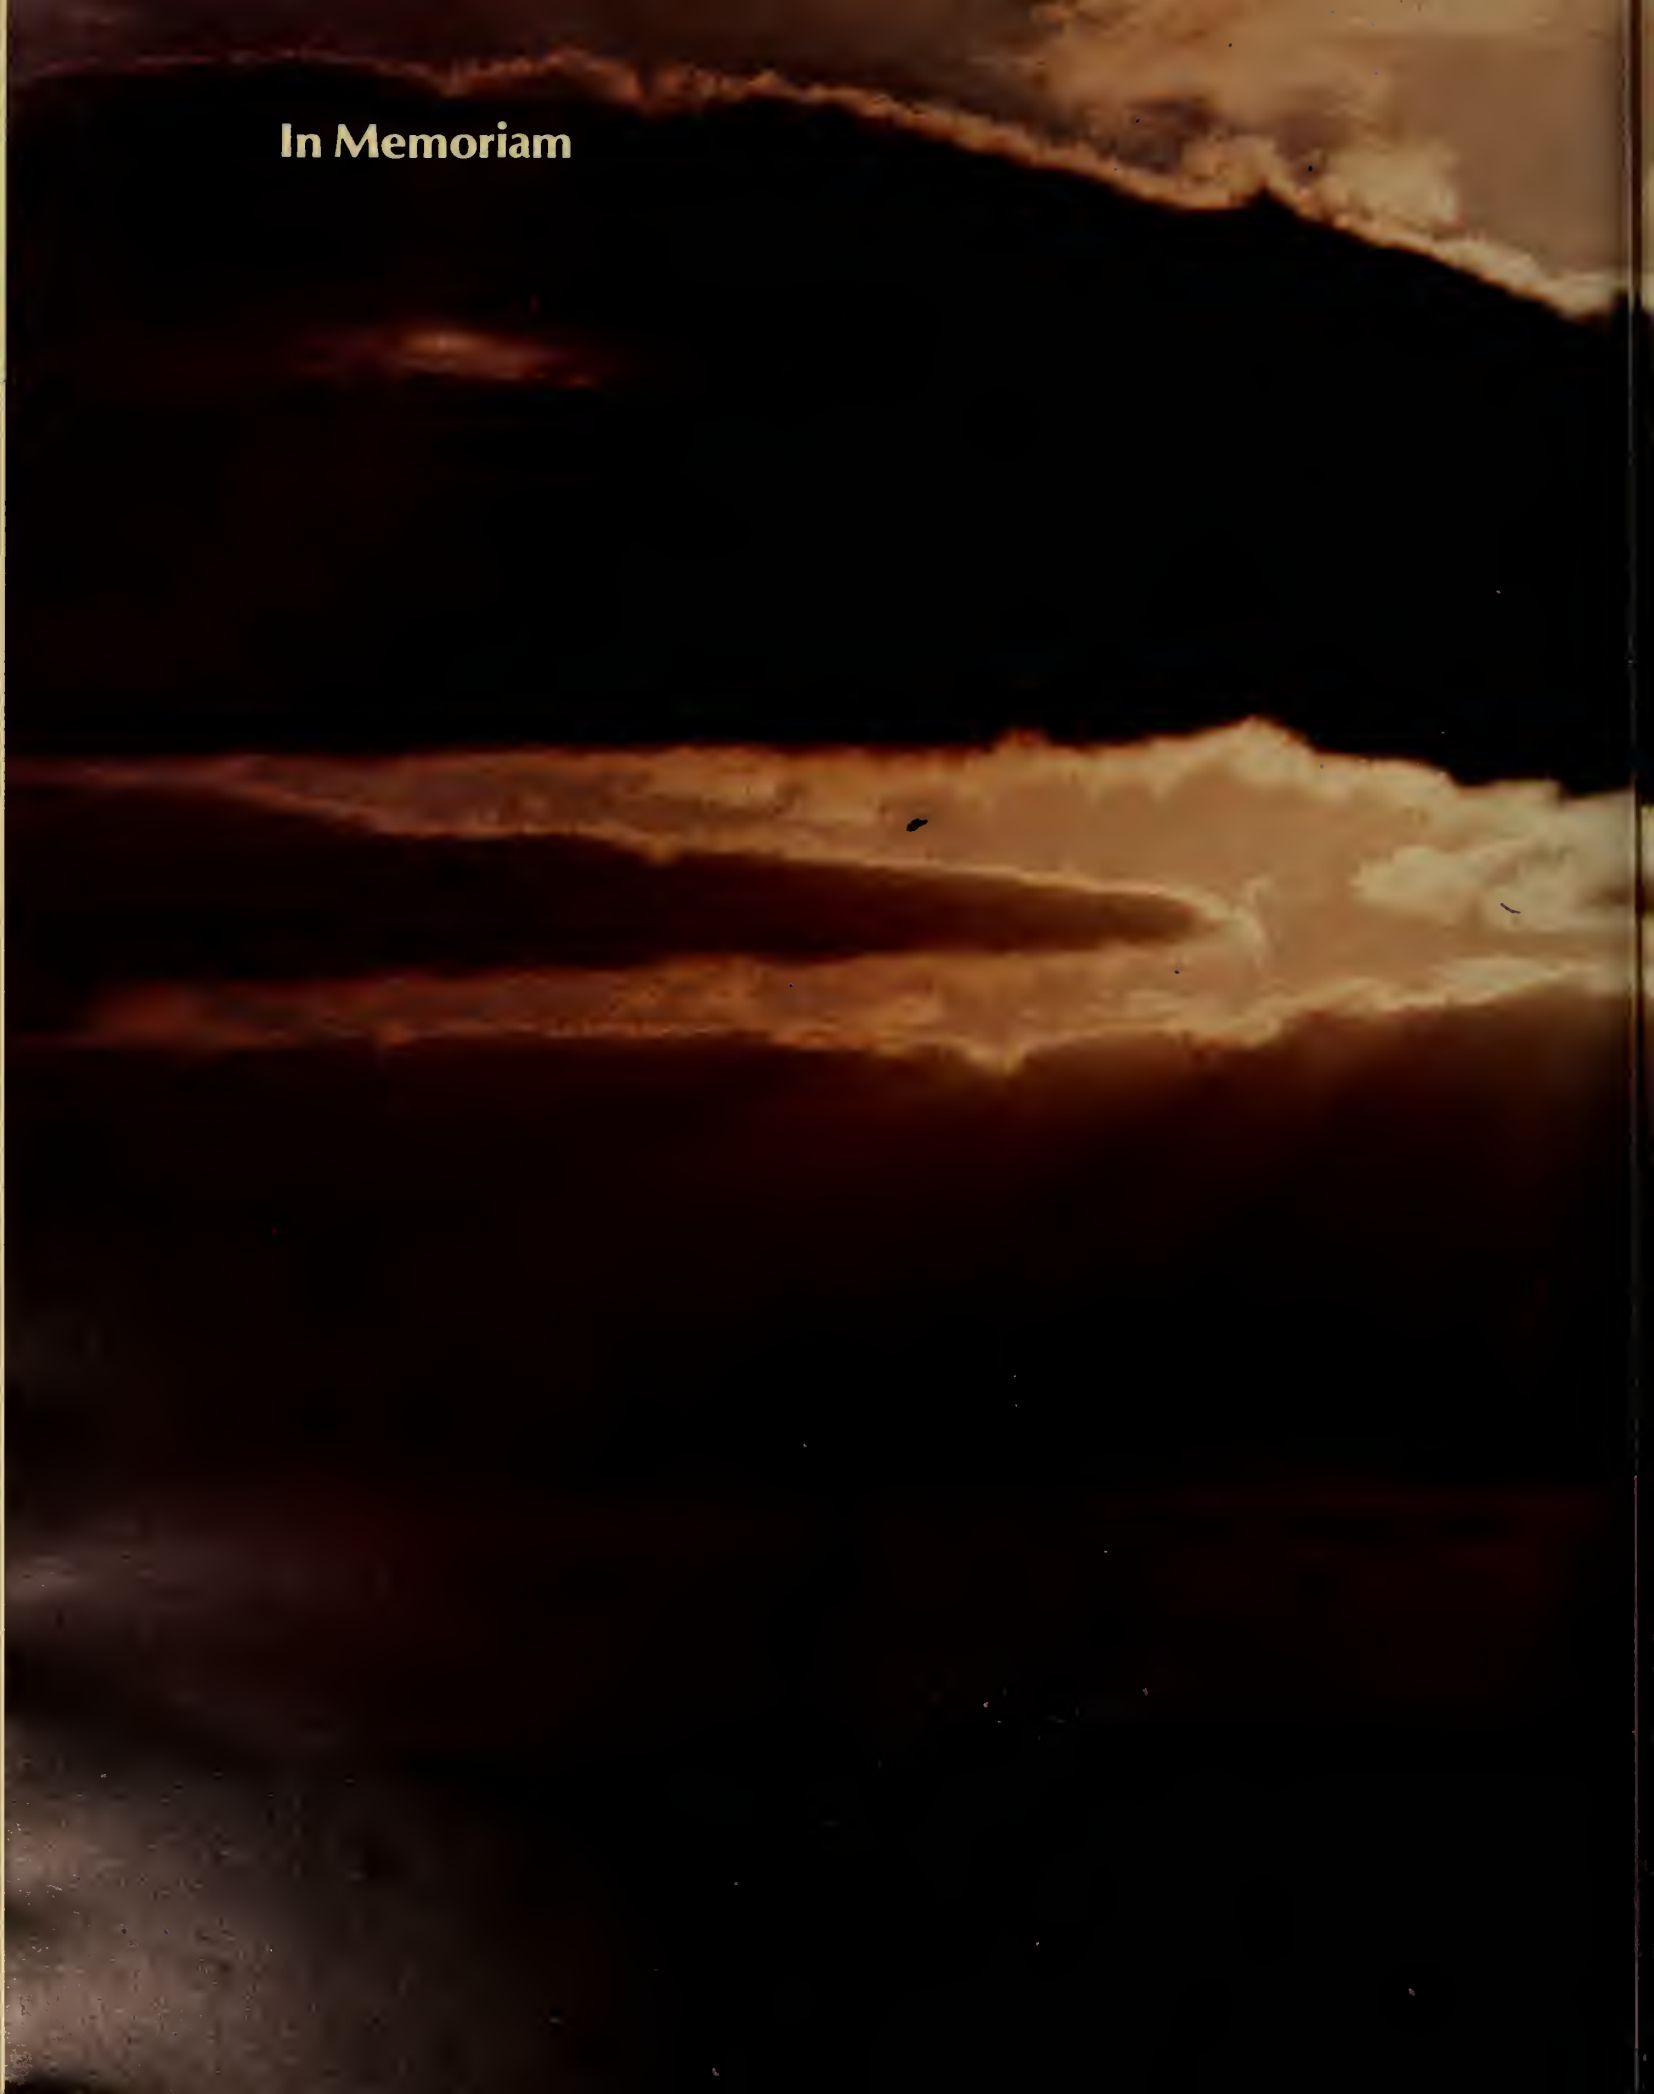

As we complete our '74 Cruise, we remember the good times and the trying times that we have faced during the past several months. Forrestal deployed in early March expecting to see some different ports, yet knowing that there would be lots of hard work and long hours at sea. The ship and air wing teamed up and quickly meshed into a fine-tuned, well-oiled fighting machine with an outstanding readiness posture. Our hard work at sea was rewarded by our port visits. Many of the crew and dependents were able to participate in our charter flight to beautiful Palma and enjoyed a luxurious two weeks in the sun. Regrettably we did not visit all the ports we would have liked. Due to international crises we were tasked to spend several long periods at sea and played a significant protective role in the evacuation of U.S. Nationals from Cyprus. Through it all, the members of the crew were marvelous — working hard, training hard and always with a smile. We can be truly proud of the record.

Indeed, the cruise was a success; however, it could not have been so without the moral support and "TLC" from the wives, parents and loved ones at home. The Forrestal team of crew and loved ones is number one in my book. I like your style.

RADM. J. E. LANGILLE III

As the years pass, each of you who served in FORRESTAL will recall this cruise with justifiable pride. Your positive attitude and dynamic teamwork welded the Flagship, the Air Wing and the Staff into a powerful arm of the U. S. Sixth Fleet. As the mainstay of Attack Carrier Striking Group TWO, you faced a demanding schedule which promised only change and long periods at sea. Like true Navy professionals, you proved always ready for a frolic or a fight. Your readiness provided stability during contingency situations and shielded U. S. and NATO interests throughout your deployment. You have been tested in a variety of situations, afloat, aloft, and ashore, and have met each challenge. I congratulate each of you for a job well done and wish you God speed and continued success in the future.

CONTRARY TO POPULAR BELIEF, A CRUISEBOOK OF THIS MAGNITUDE IS NOT A ONE MAN PROJECT. AND SO, AGAINST ALL ODDS, IT HASN'T BEEN. TO LIST ALL AID RECEIVED WOULD TAKE MORE THAN I HAVE INK IN MY PEN. HOWEVER, THERE ARE THOSE WHO RATE A MENTION SUCH AS MIKE COUGHLIN, GARY DILL, RICK LOVELL AND ESPECIALLY BOB JARVIS FOR HELPING OUT ON THE SHOOTING, ETC. JUST ABOUT EVERYONE IN THE PHOTO LAB HAS A FEW PICTURES IN THE BOOK, AND EVERY ONE IN THE PHOTO LAB HAS BEEN INVOLVED IN THE ASSEMBLY IN SOME WAY. MR. ARNER HAS COME TO THE RESCUE SEVERAL TIMES.

IT HAS BEEN AN EXPERIENCE PUTTING THIS BOOK TOGETHER, AS SPOTS RESERVED FOR LIBERTY PORTS SUDDENLY NEEDED PLUGGING. I FEEL IT IS A FINE BOOK, AND I HOPE YOU ENJOY IT.
